Galis (1955) mentions the approximate location of two languages, Nisa and Bapu, the first within the area of the East Geelvink Bay Family of the Geelvink Bay Phylum ..., in the area between the Baropasi and the Bauzi languages, and the second to the south-west of the Warenbori ... and Pauwi ... phylum-level Isolates. Voorhoeve (1975a) suggests that Nisa is probably a member of the East Geelvink Bay Family, and could be a dialect of Bauzi, and that Bapu could also be a member of the East Geelvink Bay Family, or that it could form a group with Warenbori. ...
