

The 8th International Sago Conference 2005 (EISC2005), will take place at Sentani Indah Hotel in Jayapura-Indonesia. It is scheduled for the 4th - 6th August 2005. Presentation will take place on Thursday and Friday. Fieldtrips will take place on Saturday the 6th.

Presentations can be oral or in a poster form and must be based on original research in any of all aspects of sago distribution and production, sago conservation, genetic engineering, sago plantation, production management, marketing and sago waste management. The papers maybe theory, methodology or application. For those who wish to present a paper the date line for abstract submission is March 4th, 2005.

Papers to be presented will be chosen based on the abstract. Therefore, we ask you to send an informative long abstract (approximately one page).. The abstract should include the objective, methodology, specific information about the results and conclusions of the research.

We accept mailed or faxed hard copy abstracts, however, abstract submits in electronic format (email text or attachments) will be preferable.

The official language for the meeting is English. Oral presentations should be 15 minutes long + 15 minutes for questions.

This conference is being hosted by the Research Center for Tuber Crops and Sago, a study center located within the State University of Papua. This conference will involve presentations by a number of excellent invited speakers and a large contributed papers.

The EISC 2005 Web Site is on going development. On this page you will find links which should provide you with answers to any questions you may have on how to send abstracts, the conference timetable and program, how to get here and where to stay, registration and whole lot of other stuff. We will inform you latter about the Web Site. Please reply this email to EISC2005@unipa.ac.id so we can contact you when the web site is ready.

If you have any questions about the conference, you can also contact the Conference Coordinators by click one of the name below.

Y. P. Karafir
Chairperson

Victor E. Fere
1st Secretary